

STRENUOUS BATTLES RAGE IN THE EASTERN WAR ZONE WESTERN THEATRE IS QUIET

Germans Continue Desperate Efforts to Break Through to the City of Warsaw.

WITH HEAVY LOSSES Russians on the Offensive in Other Points in the Eastern Theatre.

Battle in the Carpathians Undecided.

London, February 3.—With comparative quiet prevailing on the western front, the fighting in the East, which is more strenuous and widespread, monopolizes attention.

While the Russians are on the offensive in East Prussia, in North-western Poland, and the passes of the Carpathians, the Germans continue their attacks on the Russian line along the Burza and Rawka rivers. The invaders reached the Rawka line about the middle of December, and since that time have made at least half a dozen attacks in force against the Russian trenches, each time at undoubtedly heavy cost.

Nothing daunted, however, they have been repeating the attacks during the past week, and while they have made a slight advance, it has been accomplished only after further great losses, according to Petrograd reports. Now, it is believed, the Germans are preparing for still another onslaught, for only by compelling the Russians to strengthen their lines protecting Warsaw, can they hope to divert Russian attacks from East Prussia and Hungary.

Attempt the Impossible.

Military men here believe the Germans are attempting something virtually impossible in their efforts to force their way through to Warsaw. The Rawka and Burza lines which they have been attacking for six weeks, are exceedingly strong, for on the right banks of the rivers, which the Russians for the most part hold, the ground is considerably higher than on the left banks, so the Russian infantry and artillery have a decided advantage.

Should the Germans break through this barrier there is another line of entrenchments half way between the Burza and Warsaw, and a decision, which would have to be forced before the Polish capital fell.

In the Carpathians the Austrians and Germans are offering vigorous resistance to the Russians and a decision has not yet been reached in the battle which has been in progress there for some days.

The statement in the Russian official report that there has been fighting southeast of Ustok Pass, in the interior of Dukla Pass, and southeast of Beskid Pass, indicates the extent of the struggle.

The Attempt of a German Submarine, as Officially Reported, to Torpedo the British Hospital Ship Asturias has Attracted Wide Attention in England where it is Strongly Condemned.

There has been another skirmish between British and Turkish coast east of the Suez Canal, near Ismailia. The Turks were driven off with some loss and the British had six men wounded. The opinion still prevails in London that the Turks will not attempt to cross the desert with a large force and that the present plan to force the British to evacuate Egypt instead of sending them to France.

DEVOTE SESSION TO WAR.

British House of Commons Will Not Deal With Other Measures.

London, Feb. 3.—The House of Commons today adopted a resolution under which the present session will be devoted exclusively to consideration of measures relating to the war. The resolution was presented by Premier Asquith and concurred in by A. Bonar Law, for the opposition.

In support of the resolution Premier Asquith said:

"So long as war conditions prevail and until they are determined—I hope and trust that at no distant date they will be determined in our favor—we must postpone discussion of the plural voting bill and all domestic legislation in subordination to the one national purpose."

Baron Lucas, replying for the government to questions concerning alien enemies, said that, exclusive of prisoners of war 15,359 aliens, all males, had been interned in the United Kingdom. Of these 1,916 were released subsequently with the consent of the war office, after the records had been investigated by the police.

LAWSON DEFENDS CAP'S STAND

Recognizes of Union Meant Mining Laws.

WOMEN ARE WITNESSES

New York, Feb. 3.—John R. Lawson, executive board member of the United Mine Workers of America from the district which includes Colorado, today told the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations that the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company and other operators had refused to deal with organized labor because they realized that the unions would force them to obey the mining laws which, he said, they repeatedly had violated.

Mr. Lawson, who was a witness last week, was recalled after Mrs. Mary Petrucci and Mrs. Margaret Dominski, wives of Colorado miners, had told the story of Ludlow. Mrs. Petrucci's three children were smothered to death in a subterranean chamber where they had hidden when the tent colony was burned.

Lawson said that the only reason the operators had granted the miners anything was because "they had seen the handwriting on the wall, placed there by the unions." The operators realized, he asserted, that the unions not only would force them to obey the statutes, but would prevent them from importing vast numbers of European workers who never had seen a mine before and then paying them what they pleased and working them as long as they pleased.

Greene on Stand.

Jerome D. Greene, secretary of the Rockefeller Foundation, and formerly a member of the personal staff of John D. Rockefeller, Sr., defended the practices and policies of the Rockefeller Foundation and the aims and ideas of its founders.

Greene admitted that the foundation could do many things incompatible with the "general interests of the public" such as conducting propaganda against organized labor or a campaign against "compensation for workmen." But he declared there was not even a remote possibility that such things would happen. He said he considered the glaze window of the store door, but it was moonlight and he is unable to state whether the miscreant was white or colored and he saw only one person.

STOLEN AT WEST END ROBBED.

Cash and stock for nine hundred dollars taken at night.

(Special Star Telegram.)

West End, N. C., Feb. 3.—Thieves broke into the West End store of M. C. McDonald last evening, carrying off a bunch of swag which in its extent must have required a truck team and which in its diversity should make identification of the burglars comparatively simple when they try to dispose of the plunder.

The main prize was $100 in cash, including a $20 gold piece secured from the safe. They also took six dress suits, a number of pairs of shoes, a liberal supply of neckties, a quantity of seissors and pearl-handled knives, in all a fair stock for an itinerant peddler.

The conductor on the train which was leaving West End at 10:30 reports that he saw a man break the glass window of the store door, but it was moonlight and he is unable to state whether the miscreant was white or colored and he saw only one person.

DESTITUTE OF PALESTINE ARE TO BE GIVEN AID

Committee Appointed to Appeal for Help That Starving May Be Fed.

New York, Feb. 3.—Announcement was made tonight that officers of various Jewish societies and Christian missionary organizations in this country have formed a committee to appeal for funds for destitute inhabitants of Palestine, Syria and adjacent regions. The committee known as the Palestine-Syria relief committee says an appalling measure of misery and threatened starvation exists over a region larger than Belgium and among people equal in numbers—Christians, Jews and Mohammedans.

Thus far sufficient funds have been collected for dispatch of a ship load of food supplies under the American guarantee of safe conduct by the belligerent powers.

PROPOSED CHARTER DECLARED UNDEMOCRATIC AND ILLEGAL

Charlotte Aldermen Name Committee to Revise Present Charter.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 3.—The board of aldermen at a meeting tonight added several amendments to a resolution, which was voted on at a meeting of the board on Monday night, declaring that a proposed charter, which was drafted and completed last night by a committee of 12 elected for such a purpose, was undemocratic in principle and was illegal for the reason that a quorum of the original committee of 72 had never met to consider the charter and that reduction by the committee of the number necessary to a quorum shows that the committee itself is not in favor of its provisions. The aldermen also appointed a committee to recommend several improvements in the present city charter.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 3.—Mrs. T. J. Jackson, widow of "Stonewall" Jackson, who has been ill for some time at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. E. SHORTLINE BILL IN THE SENATE TODAY

Will Probably be Passed as it Came From the House.

INSURANCE BILL PASSED

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 3.—The Senate will take up again tomorrow an unfinished business the House bill to repeal the long and short haul clause of the Justice intrastate freight rate act, and there is every indication that the House bill unamended will be passed with possibly 10 or 11 senators voting against it. The bill was discussed for nearly two hours today as a special order.

Senator McRae said when the bill first came up that he desired to withdraw his amendment to the Ward bill to limit its operation to freights that are carried in part by short lines, as he now thought that there should be the complete repeal of the clause. To this end he moved to table the amendment. This carried and with it went automatically the Ward bill which it proposed to amend. Then there was left the Page bill that had passed the House, being a duplicate of the Ward bill. Senator Hobgood offered a duplicate of the McRae amendment to the House bill and this was argued for more than an hour before the whole matter was left open until tomorrow.

Senator Ward introduced a bill for prescribing details for electing United States senators by the people. A bill by Senator Miller would provide for the State to furnish to each superior court in the State a copy of the Gregory Supplement to Fell's Revised Statutes.

The House passed the Seawall bill for 12 1-2 per cent. flat and 12 1-2 per cent. contingent fee for fire insurance agents, contingent fee to be based on profits of the agency. It was discussed for nearly two hours with vigorous speeches against it, but passed by a large majority. Representative Barden offered a bill to authorize county commissioners to pay $15 a week for "board and room" for the poor, but it was not taken.

School for Blind Wanted.

The joint committee on Education from Salisbury urged that a committee be sent to Salisbury to look into the offer that Salisbury make for the removal of the school from Raleigh. A. H. Price, Walter Murphy and E. C. Gregory and Mayor W. H. Woodson were heard. Also, the committee was asked by Representative Freeman, of Richmond county, to look into the offer made at Rockingham. No action was taken.

Hearing on Insurance Bills.

Thursday afternoon will be a hearing before the legislative committee on insurance, especially for hearing the manufacturers on the question of the effect of pending insurance legislation on the low rates of insurance through cotton mill mutuals that the manufacturers are enabled to obtain under present conditions.

The hearing will especially involve the Seawall bill for giving the Department of Insurance power to lower or raise rates in this State and to generally revise the insurance system along the lines that were outlined in the recommendations of the special legislative commission of the 1913 Legislature for the reorganization of the conduct of fire insurance companies.

THE HOUSE PROCEEDINGS

The House was convened at 10:30 o'clock by Speaker Woolen.

There were a great number of petitions asking for the enactment of the State Anti-Saloon League bill for the stopping of the delivery of liquors in this State for beverage purposes. They came from Guilford, Union, Avery, Beaufort, Mecklenburg, Warren, Mitchell, Polk, Northampton, Rockingham, Yancey, Scotland, Anson, Chatham, Randolph, Wilkes, Alleghany, Surry, Pitt, Pender, Robeson, Cleveland, Stokes, Stanley, Columbus, Sampson, Madison, Jones, Iredell, Harnett, Wake, New Hanover, Pasquotank, Catawba, Davidson, Franklin counties and from the Woman's Missionary Society of North Carolina.

From the North Carolina Orphan's Association there was a petition asking that the exploitation of orphans for mercenary motives be prohibited and that such cases be referred to a board of inquiry in existence.

Mr. Brummitt presented a petition from the operatives of the Oxford cotton mills asking that no further labor legislation be undertaken at this session of the Legislature.

There were petitions for Farmers' Union legislation, presented from Harnett and Wayne counties. The unfavorable majority report on the House bill for woman's suffrage were presented from the committee, the favorable report that gives the bill standing for discussion on the floor of the house being signed by Representatives Thomas, of Anson, and Long, of Halifax.

THREE NEW CONFESSIONS IN MILLION DOLLAR SWindle

Chain of Stores Were Established and Bankrupted in Eight Months.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 3.—Three more defendants in the so-called million dollar swindle, or great Western Jobbing Company case, pleaded guilty in the United States district court here tonight of using the mails in a conspiracy to defraud.

They were Samuel Brown, of Philadelphia, and Jacob L. and M. M. Liebowitz, brothers, of East St. Louis, Ill. Sentence was deferred.

Their bonds were raised from $1,000 to $5,000 each and the men went to jail for the night. Their change of plea from "not guilty" to "guilty" came a few minutes before the close of court.

WHY COTTON NOT CONTRABAND

British House of Commons Told That Germany Has All She Needs.

London, Feb. 3.—Replying today in the House of Commons to Sir John D. Rees, Unionist member for Notts, who urged that cotton be declared contraband of war, Harold J. Tennant, parliamentary under-secretary of war, said the requirements of Great Britain had been safeguarded so far as the war office could see.

Mr. Tennant added that other interests were involved which it would not be desirable to touch at present.

BUSINESS AND GOVERNMENT SHOULD WORK HAND IN HAND IN FRAMING NATION'S LAW

Wilson Tells Business Men "We Must All Pool Our Interests" in America.

ADDRESS LAST NIGHT

Delegates to Meeting of Chamber of Commerce of the U. S. Hear Him.

Predicts Greater Food Shortage Later On.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Co-operation between business and the government in framing laws for the benefit of all the people was urged by President Wilson tonight in an address before several hundred representative business men here attending the annual convention of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. He declared that "we must all pool our interests" to discover the best means for handling public problems.

The President urged the creation in the United States in time of peace of the same kind of united spirit which moves nations during war. He declared that "When peace is as handsome as war there will be no wars," and that "when men engage in the pursuits of peace in the same spirit of self-sacrifice as they engage in war, wars will disappear."

The President predicted that, while there is a shortage of food in the world now, the shortage will be much greater later. He pointed out that under the guidance of the Department of Agriculture efforts must be made by American farmers to grow more and more grain than the world must be fed.

As to Foreign Trade.

Speaking of the foreign trade of the United States, the President asked the business men to develop some way of allowing American exporters to combine to form common selling agencies and to give long time credits in such a way that these co-operative devices may be open to the use of all. He declared that apparently the anti-trust laws prohibited such combinations now, but that he would favor a change, if a method fair to all could be found. He spoke of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce work in "surveying the world" for the benefit of all business men.

"Business men themselves are to blame if intelligent laws affecting them are not framed, the President asserted. He added that they should come out into the open and use their knowledge of conditions to bring about laws to prevent business evils.

The Mexican question was mentioned by Mr. Wilson as an example of the difficulty he had in getting accurate information.

Would Be One of Them.

"I would prefer that you receive me as if you were time being your own man," said the President, "because the longer I occupy the office that I now occupy the more I deplore any feeling that one set of men has one set of interests and another set of men has another set of interests; the more I feel the solidarity of the nation, the impossibility of separating one interest from another without misconceiving it, the necessity that we all should understand one another in order that we may understand ourselves. There is an illustration which I have used a great many times. I will use it again, because it is as if you were time being your own man. I often speak of a man who cannot find his way in some jungle or some desert as having lost himself. Did you never reflect that that is the only thing he has not lost. He is there. He lost the rest of the world, but he has not lost himself. He has not lost the point from which to steer. He does not know which is north, which is south, which is east, which is west, and if he did know he is so confused that he would not know in which of those directions his goal lay. He is therefore, following his heart, he walks in a great circle from right to left, and comes back to where he started, to himself again."

"To my mind it is a picture of the world. If you have lost other interests and do not know the relation of your own interests to those other interests, then you do not understand your own interests and have lost yours. What you want is orientation, relationship to the points of the compass, relationship to the other people in the world, vital connections which have for the time being been severed. And so I am particularly glad to express my admiration for the kind of organization which you have drawn together."

"I have attended banquets of chambers of commerce in various parts of the country and have seen the impressive array of those banquets that there was only one city in the country; and it has seemed to me that these associations were meant in order to destroy men's perspective, in order to destroy his sense of relative proportions; worst of all, if I may be permitted to say so, they were intended to boost something in particular. 'Boosting' is a very unhandsome thing, but to exaggerate local merit in order to create disproportion in the general development is not a particularly handsome thing or a particularly intelligent thing."

"The advantage about a chamber of commerce of the United States is that there is only one way to boost the United States, and that is by seeing to it that the conditions under which business men live are the best."

MR. J. F. YATES DEAD.

Mr. J. J. Best County Attorney—Dr. Lucas Superintendent of Health.

(Special Staff Correspondence.)
Burgaw, N. C., Feb. 3.—Mr. J. F. Yates, who had been confined to his home for some months past, died yesterday morning. He was about 48 years of age and leaves a wife and several sons and daughters. The interment was in the Burgaw cemetery today. Mr. Yates had resided in Burgaw for about one year.

The friends of Mr. Jesse F. Lucas, of Currie, who has been down for several months with typhoid fever, were glad to see him yesterday looking almost as well as ever.

The board of county commissioners Monday appointed Mr. J. J. Best county attorney. They also drew the jury for March term of Superior court, which will be for the trial of civil cases only.

The county board of health met Monday and elected Dr. Philip E. Lucas county superintendent of health.

There will be a play given at the auditorium on Friday evening, the 12th of February, by the amateur club, which promises to be something very good, as the local talent in the cast is the best.

The negro who was shot in the legs about ten days ago and who was later sent to jail for stealing the $500 caused him to be shot made his getaway from jail Saturday night, and has not been heard of since.

The free rangers held their regular monthly meeting on Monday, but nothing of importance was done.

BRUNSWICK COMMISSIONERS WOULD LEVY SPECIAL TAX

Ask Representative Hewitt to Get Bill Passed—Southport News.

(Special Staff Correspondence.)
Southport, Feb. 3.—The county commissioners held their monthly sessions here Monday and Tuesday, the proceedings being largely routine. There was an order passed that the representative from Brunswick in the Legislature, Mr. Hewitt, be notified and asked to have an act passed which will allow the commissioners to levy a special tax of 32 1/2 cents on the value of the property.

The jurors for the spring term of the Superior court of Brunswick were drawn for the one week term for the trial of civil cases, beginning on the 15th. Judge H. W. Whedbee, of Greenville, will preside. The following jurors from Northwest township were drawn: W. L. Peterson, D. McFadden, T. M. Williams, J. M. Skinner, from Town Creek; J. S. Henry, L. S. Holden, W. K. Cox, D. L. Henry, T. R. McKeltham, Jr., A. T. Crawford, D. S. Rich.

the argument," he declared, "we are now solemnly assured that 'the people are against the bill.' That people do these things speak for?" The people these senators speak for are those who control the executive committee of the New York Chamber of Commerce and other like organizations.

Places the Blame.

Of the men who, he said, formed the potential membership of these organizations, responsible for resolutions sent to Congress attacking the bill were J. P. Morgan, William H. Skinner, W. H. Porter, E. H. Outbridge, P. A. S. Franklin and others interested in great steamship companies.

Earlier in the day the Senate debated without action resolutions offered by Senator Burton asking the Secretary of the Treasury what ships had been offered to the government in connection with the shipping bill and requesting Secretary Bryan to state what information, if any, the State Department had as to the probable attitude of belligerent governments towards purchase of interned ships.

Senator Hoke Smith issued a statement tonight denying that he was opposed to the shipping bill.

"When the Vice President ruled that the motion to re-commit was out of order because a call had been made for the yeas and nays, I voted against sustaining the ruling of the chair," he said "for the rules of the Senate expressly provide that a motion to re-commit can be made at any time before final action in the Senate upon a bill. I have co-operated with the Democratic caucus in every way to support this measure, and I expect to continue to do so, and I earnestly desire the legislation passed."

HOUSE ADOPTS SEVERAL NAVIGATION MEASURES

To Facilitate Operation of Ships Under U. S. Flag.

Certain Special Taxes Imposed Upon
Certain Class of Vessels is Repealed—Other Changes Are Made in Law.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Several bills clearing up discrepancies in the navigation laws were passed by the House today. The measures were designed especially to facilitate operation under American register of foreign built ships owned by American citizens, or corporations.

When the Panama canal act, and recent amendments to the navigation laws established the policy of admitting foreign built ships to registry when owners, officers, and crews were American citizens, penalties and discriminating duties imposed on such vessels remained on the statute books. The bills passed today repealed the section of the Underwood tariff law imposing an additional duty of 10 per cent. ad valorem on goods imported in such ships, and the old penalty section of the navigation laws imposing a tax of $1.00 a ton on such ships when they touched at an American port.

To further facilitate operation of the navy policy a bill was passed authorizing American consular officers abroad to issue provisional certificates of registry to foreign built vessels when purchased by Americans. Another of the bills increased from 10 to 11 the number of supervising inspectors in the steamboat inspection service. Another provided for appointment of assistant inspectors, at $2,000 a year at New York, at $1,800 at New Orleans, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston and San Francisco and at $1,600 at other ports.

BAN JOHNSON AND CLUB

OWNERS IN CONFERENCE

Five Hour Executive Session at Schedule Meeting

Reason for Secrecy, the Outcome of Meeting and Business Transacted Are Kept Quiet—Internationals in Session.

New York, Feb. 3.—For five hours today Ban Johnson, president, and the baseball club owners of the American League, were in executive session here at the league's annual schedule meeting. At the close of the meeting the only affirmative action announced was the adoption of the 1915 playing schedule, which was made public.

While the session was in progress, President Barrow and several International League owners conferred, but none of them was admitted to the American League meeting. The major league was expected to take some definite action today in reference to the removal of the draft rule from the class A league clubs of the National Association. Johnson's secretary announced this had been discussed and it was unanimously agreed to leave the question in Johnson's hands and that he probably would take it up within a few days. No change was made in the player list of 25 now in force in the American League, although at the December meeting of the National League that body reduced the number from 25 to 21 players.

Although there were rumors that some American League clubs would offer players to the New York Americans to add to the playing strength of the Yankees, no mention was made of such intention, according to the statements of club representatives present. Col. Jacob Ruppert, Jr., and Capt. T. L. Huston, who recently purchased the Yankees, were elected members of the league.

All the clubs were represented at today's meeting. Most of the club owners left for their homes tonight.

THEATRICAL

Have you ever doted yourself all up fancy like, in a new outfit that you considered a sartorial delight, and after looking yourself over carefully, tried in vain to think of some place you might exhibit yourself? If you have you will appreciate Raymond Hitchcock's typical song, "All Dressed Up and No Place to Go." Hitchcock is singing this ditty in his new musical comedy, "The Beauty Shop," which comes to the Academy of Music one night only, February 11, and it is one of the biggest hits in that play of melody, mirth and the dance.

Grace Cunard; Francis Ford—Bijou. To the movie-land of make-believe, the names of Francis Ford and Grace Cunard are synonymous with the very best in motion pictures. As the word sterling is accepted as proof positive that the article so stamped is solid silver, so are the names of these two Universal stars upon a film drama accepted as proof that the picture is worth while.

In their latest release "Smugglers' Island," Francis Ford and Grace Cunard have outdone themselves. All of which is saying a great deal, considering their past performances. It comes in two reels filled to the overflowing with hair-raising situations such as only this couple can produce. It is a tale of revenue officers and smugglers crammed full of excitement that will make you gasp in your seat. Imagine Grace Cunard on board a pirate launch, in the power of a bearded pirate, looked in a state room. Imagine the way that Grace Cunard, and to one else, could dare them to do their worst, and finally outwit the whole band and secure her freedom.

"A Romance of Old Holland," is a mammoth two-reel Mutual drama, a thrilling romance in quaint Dutch setting that features those popular stars, Elizabeth Burbridge, Joseph Dowling and Lewis Morrison. It is a powerful drama written by Thomas H. Ince and Wm. Clifford, and will be thoroughly up to the Mutual standard.

Then there's another notable Mutual offering, "Cupid in a Dress Coat," a clever comedy with a ripping plot that features that beautiful little leading

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color, Thickness and Lustre. Everybody is Using It Again.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

lady, Margarita Fischer, with Joseph Harris and Harry Pollard. "When Cupid Caught a Thief" is a rousing Nestor comedy that completes the day's mammoth offering of six big reels of "The Incomparable Movies."

Six Reels—New Grand Today. Just another whopping big show at the New Grand today; just another of those famous bills for which this, the handsomest theatre, as well as the costliest in Wilmington, is noted. Half dozen reels, filled to the rims with high priced film matter, make up today's show, and it is some show, too. It is not only the biggest that will be screened in Wilmington, but the cleverest, most expensive. It is a thrill and then a laugh; something that will startle and will then excite to genuine laughter.

A great feature today, one that will be recognized by all as a real headliner will be the latest Biograph two-reeler, "Cousin Pons," adapted from the novel by Honore de Balzac, and it is something decidedly exceptional and that will immensely please all. The sixth of "Oliver's Opportunities" series will also be a feature today in "The Lesson of the Flames."

Fun will be fast and furious at today's show, headed by "Cactus Jack, Heart-breaker," which is a smile and then a yell for glee. The cast includes such well known people as Tom Mix, Goldie Colwell and Leanna Mahoney. Another big giggle of a picture is "Forcing Dad's Consent," and in the cast of this appears Lee Borga, Billy Quirk and Constance Talmadge. Yet there is still another jolly film conception that will tickle every rib. It is Edison's "The Courtship of the Cooks."

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give

The Turks have been annihilated several times but they act like they have not found it out.

All of us are supposed to be content that the majority should rule, but when we filibuster we show that we want the minority to have its way.

A man named Bear is leading the anti-saloon forces in Ohio, but he may not be leading the biggest crowd. There is a large element which hope to down Bear.

What people are accustomed to doing
now if they want to do it, may be prohibited by law in a few years. Some legislatures are considering laws to prevent a man from making a monkey
of himself.

If a woman voter were registered
under the name of Saffronia Ann Jones,
what would be the use of making her tell how old she is? Surely a citizen with a "before the war" name would be old enough to vote!

It has been announced time and again that Roumania is going to fight the Germans. Now it is stated that Roumania is to supply Germany with grain. Roumania and Italy could get rich if they were to remain neutral and rise supplies that all the belligerents will need before the war is over.

It would be gratifying to the American people to see their President and two of their ex-presidents on the reviewing stand at the San Francisco exposition, but it would be disagreeable to the two ex-presidents. Since the country likes to honor its big men they ought to make it unanimous by honoring each other.

From the mountains to the seashore,
following the unprecedented rains of January, there is complaint of impassable roads. Buncombe highways are reported to be the worst in 25 years.
Counties in the east make the same complaint. Here's argument for a State Highway Commission and intelligent drainage of the public roads of the State.

Of course, there ought not to be any tax on life insurance policies. That would be a tax on something that is not an asset and may never become one, in the event that it should lapse.
A life insurance policy is not a tangible asset till the money for it is in the hands of the beneficiary. Meanwhile the money held in reserve by the insurance companies to pay policies is already taxed.

The Republicans are again coming forward with a proposition for a tariff commission to revise the tariff scientifically. However, what they really want is a Republican tariff commission which could be counted on to regard a protective tariff as purely scientific. We would not like to trust a Democratic tariff commission and certainly we would not trust a Republican tariff commission any farther than we could throw the G. O. P. elephant
by his tail.

Senator Wharton of the Delaware legislature says there is too much law making and that the people are tired seeing the legislature making all sorts of laws every two years. He has introduced a constitutional amendment changing the sessions from every two years to every four years. Why not elect better men to the legislature instead of choosing men who don't know that we already have more laws than we can obey without getting grounded?

Aeroplane and hydro-aeroplane are not necessarily war machines, but the government at Washington certainly must know that the European belligerents do not want them for their health. Wheat and foodstuffs are now regarded by Great Britain as conditional contraband because it is known that they sustain the enemy. As to flying machines, we ought to know that they are wanted as engines of war, because none of the belligerents import
them to eat.

REDUCTION OF COTTON ACREAGE. WHETHER OR NO.

The cotton bears in New York and Liverpool no longer fool themselves and the cotton consumers of the world by holding out the idea that there will be no material reduction in the South's acreage this season.

All over the South the consensus of opinion is that the crop will be cut 50 per cent as an automatic proposition
without any agreement among the 1-700,000 farmers who have been growing cotton all these years. Nevertheless, the farmers themselves will reduce their acreage because they have common sense enough to know that they would be throwing away their time in growing cotton at such a critical period as this. The farmers are now preparing millions of acres for diversified crops, while last fall they sowed the largest grain crops ever planted in the South. This indicates that they have decided to cut acreage
without any hesitation about it.

The strongest assurance that the acreage in cotton will be limited is that the bankers will not loan money to grow cotton at this stage of the world's trade. The fertilizer companies will not sell fertilizers to be wasted in growing cotton. The merchants will not sell provisions or supplies to cotton growers, for the reason that they do not propose to take chances on such an uncertain crop value as cotton.

Southern cotton growers might plant 30,000,000 to 35,000,000 acres in cotton some other time—but not now. They might do it a year or two after the war in Europe, but not this year. The farmers need food crops for their own consumption, to prevent them from paying high prices for food themselves,
but they will also put in commercial food crops, for they know that the market at home and abroad will demand food stuffs at high prices.

The farmers know about that "runaway wheat market" in Chicago and New York last Monday and all this week. They know that the price of bread has gone up in Chicago and New York a five cent loaf to six cents, a 10 cent loaf to 12 cents, and other bread
prices in proportion.

Just as the bankers know when it is time to call in their loans, so do the cotton growers know when to haul in their horns. Even so, the Southern bankers, time merchants and fertilizer
companies are not only discouraging extensive cotton growing, but will not risk their money and credits with farmers who propose to grow cotton.
Therefore, the smallest acreage the South has had in cotton in a quarter of a century will be the result of the logical reasons recited above.

NO ASYLUM FOR THE IGNORANT

The New York World, having taken a poll of the House of Representatives states that the result shows that the House will not re-pass the Immigration bill over the veto of President Wilson.
The House, according to the World, will stand 217 in favor of passing the bill over the veto, while 125
will vote to sustain the President.
According to that vote, the anti-veto crowd will lack 31 votes of having the required two-thirds majority necessary to pass the bill over the veto.

The President has against him 141 Democrats, while 55 Democrats will stand by him. The Republicans will give 63 votes against the President and 36 to sustain him. The Progressives will furnish 13 votes against the President and will give three votes to sus-tain him. The majority of all the parties is in favor of passing the bill over the veto, but the opposition will over to muster a two-thirds vote. The fight begins on the President's veto today, and Representative Burnett, of Alabama, chairman of the committee on immigration, claims that he will have a margin of six to eight votes
over the necessary two-thirds majority, so he is confident that the bill will be passed over the veto.

It is an interesting fight, and little as we think about it, the question involves one of the humane principles adopted by the American people when they won their liberty. We have called America "the asylum of the oppressed"
and we have sung of it as the "land of the free, and the home of the brave," yet the people most oppressed and kept in ignorance in Europe are to be denied asylum, while educated athletes and anarchists and learned crooks
can come in under the literacy clause
of the proposed immigration bill.

We believe that an overwhelming majority of the American people would approve the restrictive laws owing to their prejudice against ignorant foreigners. They will subscribe millions of dollars to send missionaries to carry their religion to foreigners, but they shut the door in the face of illiterate people who want to come to this so-called Christian land. It places us in the attitude of being willing to send our blessings to people in foreign lands
but positively unwilling to let them
come here and enjoy those blessings
with us.

The unfortunate man or woman
might be turned away from England, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, America or any other part of the world, but is that civilization's way to deal with the ignorant and the oppressed?

It is curious isn't it? We don't want every man to be our brother and we don't want to be the brother of everybody but the enlightened, whether they are vicious or not. This country does not want too great a flood of ignorance, but the immigration bill has been laying more stress on the moral and physical conditions of newcomers than upon literacy. There is a cure for ignorance but very little remedy for the moral leper who can read and write, or the vicious element which comes to us as enlightened denizens
from the gayest capitals of Europe.

The poor ignorant! The illiterate poor! Their privileges and chances are restricted by society and law everywhere. Whole nations shut the door in their face. God made the world for all mankind but some of the world's people take it for granted that God made it especially for them.

Congress might override the President's veto and the people approve it,
but what would the Creator of the world and of all its ignorant creatures do if he had the deciding vote
in Congress?

HIGH PRICED BREAD.

In Chicago on Tuesday May wheat jumped to $1.45 a bushel, and there was a "runaway market" there and in New York. In New York, the larger consumers as well as the dealers expect the price of wheat to go to $2.00
before it stops.

The price of flour has risen so high in Chicago that the bakers have been compelled to increase the price of a 5 cent loaf to 12 cents; a 10 cent loaf to 12 cents, while all other bakery output has gone up in proportion. In New York, the bakers have increased prices as follows: Small loaf,
6 cents; large loaf, 12 cents; rolls,
1 cent each, etc.

In New York the price of flour to bakers has jumped from $4.25 to $7.75
a barrel. Rye flour has increased from $4 to $7.50 a barrel. From 260 to 280 loaves of bread are made from each barrel of flour, so that the increase of $3.50 a barrel on flour has increased the price of bread 1-1/2 cents on each loaf.

The bakers say that if wheat goes up to $2.00 they will have to increase the price of bread to a higher point, as they claim that even now they are not making any money.

All this will create a larger demand for corn meal and corn products of every description. All food stuffs will be bound to go up, as flour goes up, so it is a lucky farmer who has planted grain crops and will produce plenty of corn, beans, peas, potatoes and every other kind of food crop this year.

The longer the war in Europe lasts,
the worse it will be and they are wise farmers who act with foresight in their farming operations this season.

COMMERCE WILL STAGGER AGAIN.

Great Britain has declared all grain and flour cargoes and food stuffs for Germany and Austria as contraband,
subject to seizure and confiscation.
Even the ships attempting to carry such supplies to Germany or Austria will be seized and carried before the prize courts.

Russian ships have seized food supplies sent to relieve the starving Serbians for fear it will fall into the hands of Austria or Turkey. The belligerents seem determined to starve each other out, and their activities will again
stagger commerce on the high seas.
Germany, of course, is endeavoring,
with her submarines, to put a stop to the shipment of food supplies to Great Britain, so that the risk to shipping has greatly increased. London claims that ocean freight rates have gone up to prohibitive points, while dock room
and wharf labor is scarce and high.

Doubtless cotton will soon be made conditional contraband. Under all these conditions, the prolongation of the war will mean that commerce will grow less. If the war lasts a year, blockade running will be in vogue, but that is not much of a stick to lean upon over an ocean 3,000 miles wide.

Judge Thomas F. Scully, of Chicago, has ruled that women must tell their ages when they register as voters for the approaching election. He holds that they must answer the same questions that are required of the men. Of course equal rights for women must mean no discrimination against them or in favor of them, and though we love them, either in the abstract, or in the concrete, or in the aggregate, or in our minds, as the case may be, they have to be fed out of the same spoon as the male citizens of the species. If the law required them to wear pants and join the cavalry, they would have to do it, because men have framed the laws after their own ideas and they have to apply to all citizens, whether they are ladies or not ladies such as men are. Why don't the equal suffrageists get the law amended so that the oath as to citizenship shall read: "I swear (or affirm) that I am entitled to be registered as a voter under the law providing that all citizens 21 years old or more shall have the right to vote upon qualifying in accordance with the laws, or parts of laws regulating suffrage?"

Whether the times are improving or not, everything in England is looking up.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Catch the North Carolina Legislature in a trap, will you? The purpose is to have a State-wide vote on a primary bill, a prohibition amendment and woman suffrage. "Let the people rule!"—Greensboro Record.

The decision of the Greater Charlotte Club management to have its dollar dinner this spring was well advised.
More than any other single occasion,
this event has served in the past to bring together the men who are building Charlotte, to focus their attention
as a unit on the work of the twelvemonth gone, and to inspire them to renewed efforts in the year that is to come. The Greater Charlotte Club has been in the very center and forefront of the activities that have been developing in this city during the past nine years, and as it faces the new year with the courage born of confidence and the confidence born of achievement it sets the piedmont region an example it would do well to emulate. The dollar dinner will give opportunity for a rallying of the men of Charlotte to give evidence of their moral and financial support of its programme and to supply enthusiasm and impetus for the task of compassing its undertakings.—

Charlotte Observer.

The Equal Suffrage Section of the News and Observer this morning speaks for itself, but it is so deserving of the special attention and consideration of our readers that we shall take the liberty of urging that such attention be accorded it. The editors of the suffrage section are Miss Suzanne Bynum, of Charlotte, and Miss Mary Ferrand Henderson, of Salisbury. It seems to us that they have used the four pages of the section with a fine sense of the sort of matter that will win support for the suffrage cause. The arguments for "votes for women" are most engaging-ly set forth, and betray a scope of information as to those who have come out for woman suffrage that shows an intimate acquaintance with the progress of events in this country. Somebody said recently in discussing the question of votes for women that no matter whether one favored it or not, one had to admit that the women of North Carolina have espoused the cause would be a credit to any cause and that is the way, we fancy, most people will feel following yesterday's activities in Raleigh and the presentation at the equal suffrage section, which goes out with today's News and Observer,
but with an entity and an individuality all its own.—Raleigh News and Ob-

COUNCIL VOTES TO CONNECT DEEP WELL

Adopts Resolution Offered By Councilman Wood

Planned to Turn Deep Well Water Into City Main—Trees for Market Street Planted—Other Matters Yesterday.

City Council yesterday adopted, by a unanimous vote, a resolution offered by Councilman T. W. Wood, champion of the deep well idea, requesting Councilman Loughlin to take the necessary steps to have the new deep well at 10th and Fanning streets connected with the city mains, now furnished entirely with river water, from the Hilton plant, and according to present plans the work of connecting the well will be begun as soon as funds can be secured. Provided the Legislature authorizes the proposed bond issue of $50,000 for water and sewerage improvements, a part of this will be used to make the connection.

Council also appropriated $110 to be used in planting a line of live oaks in the plaza along Market street from Fourth to 17th; authorized fish dealers to sell under the shed on the north side of the city market, on condition they keep the place sanitary; received the usual monthly reports from the several departments and transacted or discussed considerable other business.

Councilman Wood's resolution was adopted following a discussion of the deep well idea, in which several members took occasion to express the opinion that the water from the well is an improvement over the river water, both for domestic and industrial uses. A request from the health department that pumping on the well be continued for another two weeks, at least before finally deciding on the question, was read, but declined.

The resolution adopted is as follows: "Whereas, the test pumping of the deep well at Fanning and 10th streets recently dug by the city has demonstrated a capacity of about one million gallons a day, and the water is an improvement over the river water, both for domestic and industrial uses;

"Whereas, the State laboratory has analyzed this water and reports that it is suitable for domestic use;

"Be it Resolved, That, Councilman Loughlin be requested to instruct the city engineer in co-operation with Mr. W. E. Worth, to have the said well properly equipped for the purpose of pumping water at the earliest date possible into the city main;

Preparatory to introducing his resolution, Councilman Wood submitted joint report with Mr. W. E. Worth, who had supervised the pumping of the well, stating that he had been pumped for several weeks and that it would produce steadily at the rate of about 1,000,000 gallons a day. The report stated that the water was good for both drinking purposes and industrial uses.

Mr. Wood also submitted a report from Prof. A. N. DuBois, a local chemist, who stated that "on the whole I consider this water a good potable water for either home use or industrial purposes."

Councilman Loughlin informed the body that he had received a communication from the Health Department, asking that the well be pumped for at least two weeks in order to give time to make further tests.

Councilman Wood, however, objected to this, declaring that the well had been pumped long enough to determine both the quality and quantity of water. He had talked with experts, he said, who knew more about deep wells than the experts of the health department. The health department is prejudiced against deep wells, he declared, and stated that they had been against him all the time.

"They want to protect the boilers and let the people go," he declared. "We are the direct cause of many people dying now, and if we don't give them better water, it is going to be trouble." So far as the use of the well water in boilers was concerned, Mr. Wood declared that the present city water is not used in the boilers.

Councilman Loughlin remarked that the analysis of the deep well water by the State Laboratory of Hygiene showed it to be better than the water of Savannah, Ga., which is obtained from deep wells, and Councilman Wood added that the analysis made by Prof. DuBois made an even better showing. "And he is a chemist," Mr. Wood declared, "and Mr. Catlett is not."

There was a slight discussion as to the economic features in connection with the proposition, and Councilman Wood submitted a statement from Mr. W. E. Worth, superintendent of the water and sewerage department, showing that for the past three months it has cost the city about $14 a million gallons to pump, filter and deliver to the mains, the city water now used. It cost Savannah about $3 a million gallons to pump its deep well water, and Councilman Wood declared that it could be done here at a cost of $4 to $6 a million gallons, the city would put in a power plant of its own, at the present water plant, it could be done for ever less, Mr. Wood said.

Councilman Wood stated, however, that it would cost $25 a day to operate a pump, if the electricity was furnished by the Tidewater Power Company, even at the rate of 1-34 per kilowatt. Mr. Wood thought it could be made by the city for less than 1-2 cent a kilowatt.

Councilman Wood finally declared that he wanted the matter settled one way or another, and introduced his resolution. It was seconded by Councilman Merritt, and after a query as to where the necessary money was to be secured, and the suggestion that part of the proposed bond issue of $50,000 be used, Mayor Moore put the question. The vote was unanimous for the resolution.

The report of the analysis made by Dr. C. A. Shore, director of the State Laboratory of Hygiene at Raleigh, on the deep well water, is as follows:

Sediment, very slight.
Color—Platinum-cobalt standard, 0.
Turbidity—Sillies standard, 0.
Odor, cold, 0.
Odor, hot, 0.
Alkalinity (in terms of Calcium Carbonate) 172.6.

Colon bacilli, 1 in 10 cc, 0.
Total number of bacteria at 20 degrees C per cc, 250.
Total number of bacteria at 38 degrees C per cc, 16.

Mr. John J. Blair, chairman of the Tree and Park Commission, appeared to recommend that Council make an appropriation for planting trees along Market street. Mr. Blair discussed relative merits of the several different shade trees and recommended that Council authorize the Commission

PROPOSE LARGE BOND ISSUE

Council Adopts Resolution Asking Legislature for Authority to Take the Step.

The proposal that the city of Wilmington issue $400,000 in bonds for the purpose of taking up outstanding bond issues as they come due, is contained in a resolution introduced at the weekly meeting of City Council yesterday and adopted by that body, asking legislative authority for such an issue. The resolution was introduced by Councilman D. N. Chadwick, Jr., in charge of the department of accounts and finance.

Chadwick, in introducing the resolution, pointed out that the city could save about $6,000 a year by issuing the bonds now and taking up the outstanding issues as they came due, instead of waiting until they mature and then making the issue. He mentioned that municipal securities find a ready sale at this time, at a reasonable interest rate, whereas, authorities agreed that at the close of the present war abroad, money will be stringency, and the bonds could hardly be disposed of as advantageously as at the present time.

Councilman E. A. Merritt seconded the resolution, and it was adopted by a unanimous vote. It will be forwarded to the local representatives in the General Assembly. Just what their attitude will be is not known. Senator Cooper having stated some time ago that he would oppose the Legislature granting the city authority to issue bonds other than for the purpose of refunding the present floating indebtedness.

The resolution adopted yesterday is as follows: "Whereas, the following bonds of the City of Wilmington will fall due upon the dates specified, to-wit:

"Issue of $100,000 in 1915, bearing 5 per cent interest, issue of $50,000 in 1915, bearing 5 per cent interest; issue of $125,000 in 1915, bearing 5 per cent interest.

"And, Whereas, a further issue of $50,000 in bonds, bearing 5 per cent interest, payable serially in sums of five thousand dollars, can be called in in 1917.

"And, Whereas, it is desirable, that the issue of bonds, necessary to redeem the bonds enumerated, should be sold at a suitable time, in accordance with the state of the market when most favorable to the city;

"Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved, That the City Attorney draw a bill and that our Representative in the Legislature be requested to have same enacted, authorizing the City of Wilmington to dispose of $400,000, in bonds, payable 40 years after date, bearing not exceeding 5 per cent interest, to be sold at not less than par, the proceeds of the sale of which are to be used exclusively for the redemption of the bonds above enumerated.

"And in the event that said bonds are sold prior to the maturity of the bonds to be redeemed then the proceeds of such sale are to be placed on deposit at interest, and held and used only for the purpose aforesaid."

purchase and plant 130 live oak trees in the plazas on Market street from Fourth to Seventeenth, also that the city remove the dead or badly diseased trees along the street, and later of take up with the property owners the question of planting laurel oaks on the sidewalk plazas. Mr. Blair stated that the live oaks could be purchased at $1 per tree, and that the laurel oaks would cost $2 each. Council decided to purchase 130 trees for the 13 blocks. Council made the appropriation.

Mr. D. J. Ferguson and Mr. J. B. Pales appeared to ask that Council authorize the fish dealers to use the space on the sidewalk during the dead season, which lasted through February, March and April. The privilege was granted the dealers, on condition that they keep the place clean. No rental charge will be made.

Messrs. J. Van B. Metts, H. F. Wilder, T. H. Wright and others asked Council to improve the conditions around Fourth and Fifth streets. The exhibited a sketch of the design for the ornamental gates, which, he stated, would cost about $2,500. Council took the matter under consideration.

Report was made by Councilman Merritt of the recent meeting of the Civic Improvement Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, when the matter of improving the appearance of the railroad approaches to the city was under consideration. Mr. Merritt stated that the Atlantic Coast Line was in hearty sympathy with the movement, and would co-operate in bringing about a difficulty presented itself in the habit of people living along the railway cuts to throw trash and garbage into the street. The city attorney was instructed to draft an ordinance prohibiting this.

Capt. T. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, made a statement on the action of the City Attorney in pleading the statute of limitations in Superior Court in the case of Mulford against the city, brought to collect for drugs alleged to have been furnished the health department several years ago, and which the city has no record of having ever received. He said that the statute of limitations was pleaded as the earliest and least costly way of settling the case, for the city could have won the suit had it gone to trial. Mr. Bryan also made a short statement, informing the members that he had satisfied himself fully before making his plea that the city did not owe the bill.

Chief Charles Schultze reported eight fire alarms for January, with a loss not exceeding $100. Chief of Police N. J. Williams reported 151 arrests last month.

WILL CONTINUE EXTRA MEN QUARTERLY HONOR ROLL FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL

Street Work Will Not be Curtailed at Once—Council Cuts Keathley Off Pay Roll.

Despite the fact that the funds available for the purpose, all but about $1,000 has already been expended, City Council will continue for a time at least the extra work in the street department, undertaken as a means of providing work for the unemployed here. Under the present plans, it will probably be necessary to rotate the extra men engaged in the work, so as to allow each man three or four days work a week, but no men will be laid off altogether.

This was decided at a conference following the regular weekly meeting yesterday morning, when the situation was gone into thoroughly, and discussed from all phases bearing thereon. Report was made by Councilman Merritt, in charge of the department of streets and wharves, at the regular meeting, that when the idea was first advanced, it was thought that out of the $100,000 bond issue to be authorized by the General Assembly for the purpose of refunding the floating indebtedness of the city, about $20,000 would be available for the emergency street work. However, it was later found that the city's floating indebtedness amounted to $31,000, leaving only $9,000 available for the work. Of this amount about $5,000 has already been expended for labor and for curbing, gravel and other supplies. Mr. Merritt stated that while good work has been accomplished by the expenditure, and the men employed were just as much in need of the work now as when it was first undertaken, nevertheless, it appeared that it would have to cease from lack of funds. The advisability of ceasing all the extra work except that upon Macomber's ditch was discussed, but no final action was taken at the meeting, and at the adjourned meeting immediately afterwards, it was decided to continue all the extra men for a time at least, rotating them in square street work, and to cease from three or four days work a week. Council has it in mind to continue this extra work until March 1st, at least, and longer if necessary and possible.

An interesting feature of the weekly meeting was the action of Council, following a request from Mr. M. Ed Keathley, head of the labor movement bureau created in response to the movement to provide work for the unemployed, who has been on the city pay roll at $1.50 a day, asking for more wages. Instead of the request being granted Council cut Mr. Keathley off the pay roll altogether.

Councilman Jones brought the matter up, stating that he had received a note from Mr. J. Allan Taylor, chairman of the citizens' central committee, recommending that Mr. Keathley's pay be increased from $1.50 to $2 a day. Councilman Jones promptly objected, stating that he could not see why Mr. Keathley was on the pay roll any way, and that further he noticed Mr. Keathley had been circulating petitions for signatures relative to the Cooper Board of Education bill, an activity that he did not think was to be expected of city employees.

Other members agreed with Mr. Loughlin, and Mr. Jno. C. McAllister, superintendent of streets, was asked if Mr. Keathley had been of any material assistance to him in the matter of the extra street work. Mr. McAllister replied that he had received four notes from Mr. Keathley. Council then voted unanimously to drop Mr. Keathley from the payroll, effective immediately.

JUDGE WHEEDER WAS BUSY YESTERDAY SIGNING PAPERS

Several Minor Civil Cases Tried—Two Jury Trials.

Much of Judge Wheeler's time in Superior Court yesterday was taken up signing judgments rendered on the preceding day when he summoned the members of the Wilmington bar to the court room and ordered the opening of the court docket. There were only two jury trials and yesterday afternoon the jury was dismissed for the day.

The jury trial against Mr. F. W. Pfeiffer, who was not entitled to recover from Dr. M. M. Caldwell the amount of $100 alleged to be due for services as leader of a band. In the case of J. D. Darby against J. M. P. Hines, involving the ownership of a mule, the jury decided that the plaintiff was entitled to the animal.

Other entries made on the minutes were: Dryden & Guthrie against J. C. Vereen, judgment of magistrate's court, affirmed, dismissed; Smith & Gilchrist against Green & Tarborough Company, dismissed, each to pay half of the costs; Smith & Gilchrist against A. D. Mann, dismissed, each party to pay half of the costs; Thomas H. Wright against John B. Pales, dismissed, each to pay half of the costs; B. B. B. against P. Richardson & Company, plaintiff given ten days to file complaint.

In all cases upon the summons docket except the one involving the mule, orders have been made it was ordered that time be allowed to file pleadings.

SUCCESSOR MAJOR MCKETHAN.

Mr. W. M. Walker Appointed Clerk of the Court of Cumberland County. Fayetteville, N. C., Feb. 3.—Chas. G. Rose, Esq., clerk of the court, today from Judge C. C. Lyon, at Elizabethtown, a telegram advising that he had appointed Mr. W. M. Walker clerk of court of Cumberland county to fill out the unexpired term of Major A. McKethan, deceased. There were at least eight other applicants for the office.

Mr. Walker served for two successive terms as register of deeds of this county, finally declining to stand for re-nomination for another term, when he was succeeded several years ago by Mr. F. R. Hall. Mr. Walker is thoroughly conversant with the affairs of the county, is a most loyal Democrat and one of Cumberland's most popular citizens.

Before the Recorder.

Prayer for judgment was continued for one year by the Recorder yesterday in the case against Mary Keadley, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law. She was required to give bond in the sum of $100 for her good behavior. A case against James Holland, colored, charged with simple assault, was dismissed.

QUARTERLY HONOR ROLL FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL

All Records Broken In History of Institution

Miss Mary C. Peterson, of Senior Class, Made Highest Grade—List of Names Announced Yesterday.

All records for a quarterly honor roll in the Wilmington High school were broken during the past three months, the number on the academic roll being 102. When it is remembered that a pupil in order to get on the honor roll must have made 100 per cent in department and at least 80 per cent in his different studies, great credit must be given not only to the students but also to the teachers, who have rendered such efficient service. At no time in its history has the high school done better work than during the past quarter.

The reading of the honor roll is an event looked forward to with much interest by the pupils and this was especially true yesterday. Miss Mary C. Peterson, a member of the Senior class, led the school with a grade of 98.7 per cent. PERHAPS HE MAY DIE

You have named as your Executor a friend; he is familiar with your affairs. You trust him. Suppose, however, he should die shortly after you and before your Estate is settled up. Wouldn't it throw your affairs into confusion? The Court would appoint an Administrator de bonis non cum testamento annexo—and he wouldn't know any more about your affairs and how your Estate should be managed than the average layman knows about the meaning of these words. Name the Trust Company as your Executor and you eliminate this "perhaps." It is a responsible corporation, and does not die.

May we have a confidential conference with you on the subject? When you call, ask for Mr. Taylor. It costs no more to have the trained services of the Trust Company as your Executor than it does to have the untrained services of an individual.

HAS HIGHEST DEATH RATE

New Hanover's Showing, However, Influenced by the Thorough Registration of Vital Statistics.

New Hanover county, with a percentage of 28.3 per thousand, had the highest death rate of any city in North Carolina for the year of 1914, according to a bulletin just issued by the State Board of Health. It is pointed out in the bulletin, however, that this figure is perhaps due to the excellent registration in the county. New Hanover is conceded to be the model county in the State with reference to the completeness of registration of vital statistics, and this fact counts against her in comparing her death rate with that of some of the other counties less observant in the matter of registration.

The figures on which the State Board's calculations are based are those of the census of 1910, and this fact also is to be taken into consideration, for New Hanover's population has increased at least 20 per cent since that time.

It also is to be remembered that Wilmington and New Hanover county have the only hospitals in a large territory, and that many of the deaths occurring here are rightly non-resident, though they are registered in this county. There were over 70 non-resident deaths in Wilmington last year, according to the records. The death rate per thousand in Wilmington for 1914 was 18.4.

The bulletin from the State Board of Health is as follows: "North Carolina will have little room for Belgians if the present rate of increase of births over deaths keeps up. In 1914 there were 71,931 births registered in North Carolina, while the total number of deaths registered during the year was only 31,484, which shows an increase to the population of over 40 per cent. These reports are the finding of the Vital Statistics Department of the State Board of Health and are as nearly correct as the Vital Statistics law can make them.

The counties leading in births are: Wake 2,184; Guilford 2,158; Mecklenburg 2,036; Johnston 1,659; Forsyth 1,633; and Gaston 1,428. The counties leading in the number of deaths are: Wake 1,291; Mecklenburg 1,235; Guilford 1,126; and Forsyth 1,019. The counties leading in marriages are: Wake 807; Guilford 802; Mecklenburg 797; Forsyth 772; and Buncombe 658. As it appears, Wake county leads not only in the number of births and marriages, but also in the number of deaths, though her death rate is 20.4, which is the fourth highest in the State. New Hanover county has the highest, 28.3 per thousand, while Forsyth has the next of 21.5 and Pasquotank 20.7.

While at first thought these death rates may appear rather high, closer examination of the returns indicate that these rates are due largely to two causes: first, the higher death rate among the negroes, and, second, to excellent registration in these counties.

"Another significant fact revealed by the figures compiled by the Vital Statistics Department is that the white death rate is 11.5 per 1,000 population, while the colored death rate is 16.6 per 1,000. On the other hand, the white birth rate is 38.3 per 1,000, and the colored rate is only 25.0 per 1,000.

CHARTER DRAFT COMPLETED

Retains Civil Service for Firemen and Police—Committee Meets Council Today.

After another session of three hours last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, the joint councilmanic and business men's committee, in consultation with the attorneys, ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, ex-Mayor A. C. Riddle and Mr. Eugene S. Martin, completed the revision of the rough draft of the proposed new city charter and the attorneys will now be engaged for a day or two in putting the document in shape for legislative enactment.

An important agreement in the provisions last night was to retain the principles of civil service for the government of the fire and police departments, which will no doubt be quite satisfactory to the general public as well as those employees in these departments of the city government.

No other changes were made in the provisions as previously adopted. It is understood that the attorneys very soon will prepare a thorough digest of the entire charter which will be published for the information of the public, who will have to pass upon the charter at a special election to be held about the middle of March.

It came as rather a surprise yesterday that thus far the ward lines in the annexation bill already pending in the Legislature and which will become law regardless of whether the people vote for the new charter or not, has not been changed to conform to the new ward lines which seem to have been agreed upon in compromise a few nights ago and which were regarded as generally satisfactory to all concerned. At the meeting of the committee last night, members of the council on the joint committee were asked to arrange for a meeting of the City Council this afternoon at 4 o'clock at which time the joint committee can be present and make representations to the end that the Council may at once recommend to the Legislature that the compromise ward lines be named in the annexation bill so that there may be no conflict. It is anticipated that Council will at once take action in order that there may be no delay in these rapidly waning days of the General Assembly.

—Mr. Horace Springer, of Washington, D. C., who has been a guest of his brothers in this city since the recent death of Mrs. J. A. Springer, returned to his home last night.

To Remove Blotchy, Rough or Chapped Skin

To remove roughness, chaps, freckles, blotches, or any complexion difficulty, the best thing to do is to remove the skin itself. This is easily, painlessly and inexpensively done by the application of ordinary mercurized wax, procurable at any drug store in the original one-ounce package. The wax absorbs the defective outer skin, a little each day, gradually bringing the second layer of skin to the surface. The pores are unclogged and the face breathes in the life-giving oxygen. The new skin is beautifully soft and spotless, bearing the healthy glow of youth. Just apply the wax as you would cold cream, only not rubbing it in. In the morning wash it off with warm water. It's the most effective complexion treatment known.

To remove wrinkles it is a good plan to bathe the face once a day for awhile in a harness solution made by dissolving an ounce of powdered salixite in a half pint of witch hazel. There is nothing that will so surely erase the hateful lines.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING AT SUBURBAN YESTERDAY
Southport, N. C., Feb. 3.—One of the leading social events of the season was the marriage of Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. Benjamin Franklin Swain, to Mr. Walter Clark, of Jacksonville, Fla., in Antioch Baptist church at Suburb, N. C., at high noon today. Rev. C. C. Wheeler, officiating. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

The church was elaborately decorated with palms, Southern amilax and long leaf pine. The vows were spoken under a large white wedding bell suspended from a green arch. The bride party entered to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, Miss Ellen Windsor, of Southport, presiding at the organ. Just before the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. Robert Runk, of Wilmington, sang "O, Promise Me".

The bride was lovely in a gown of white silk crepe meteor trimmed with real lace. Her veil was caught with large blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and dillies of the valley. Her only ornament was a diamond LaValiere, the gift of the groom.

She entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away. They were met at the altar by Mr. Clark and his best man, Mr. Roger Swain. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the recessional.

The dance of honor, Mrs. Charles Lester Vann, of Columbia, S. C., wore pink satin with chiffon tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor, Miss Ella Roberts Swain, of Wilmington, wore pink satin with lace tulle and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids Misses May Ward, Suburb, and Mary Robbins, of Southport, wore pink satin with lace tulle and carried pink carnations.

The ushers were, Messrs. Cleveland Swain, Claud Swain and Dr. Hugh D. Ward.

The flower girls were little Misses Myrtle Galloway, of Suburb, and Ada May Robbins, of Southport, who wore white lingerie dresses with pink ribbons. Immediately preceding the bride came little Miss Josephine Robbins, of Southport, wearing white lingerie dress with white ribbons and carrying the ring hidden in the heart of a large white rose.

Among the pre-nuptial events, was a linen shower given by Miss Mary Robbins at Southport. Immediately following the ceremony at the church, an elaborate luncheon was served at the home of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Clark left yesterday afternoon for their bridal tour to various points in the South and will be at home in Jacksonville after February 10.

Mrs. Clark is a charming young woman, being popular in social circles here and elsewhere in the State. Mr. Clark is a progressive young business man, of Jacksonville, Fla., and is well known in Southport and Wilmington, where he has been for some time superintendent for the W. P. Richardson Company, of Jacksonville, Fla.

There were many costly and beautiful gifts on display at the bride's home, evidences of the popularity of the bride and groom.

FEAR ENTIRE CREW OF SCHOONER LOST AT SEA.
Schooner Frank E. Swain Found Bottom Side Up—Nothing of Crew.

The schooner Frank E. Swain is anchored bottom side up off the North Carolina coast, according to recent advices to the Revenue Cutter Service at Washington from the cutter Seminole. The report stated that no mention was made of the crew by the cutter.

In view of the strength of the recent storm that swept the Atlantic coast and of its disastrous results, grave fear is felt here for the entire crew of the vessel. Captain Haskell, who was in charge of the vessel, has been making this port for the past 30 years and has many friends who appreciate his sterling worth and are anxious concerning his welfare.

The only hope for the crew is that some passing vessel rescued them from the disabled craft. Escape in an open boat was impossible for no small boat could have stood up against the terrific storm which rendered the Frank E. Swain useless.

COTTON CLOSED BARELY STEADY WHEAT PRICES ARE HAMMERED STOCKS DULL AND IRREGULAR

Market Was Down Most of Day But Recovered Slightly at Close on Overall Buying.

New York, Feb. 3.—Cotton was lower today under more or less realizing from Wall Street and Western sources, with the close barely steady at an advance of 2 to 4 points on overnight buying orders attracted by the strength of late yesterday and in sympathy with the steady showing at Liverpool. There appeared to be some demand from trade interests as well as scattered house buying after the call but the market soon turned easier under heavy selling.

The unsettled and nervous ruling of the ground market may have been partly responsible for liquidation of cotton by houses with Western connections and except for some New Orleans selling here during the early trading, there appeared to be no offering of consequence from Southern sources. Advances received in Washington reported a declining market for cotton in Bremen and there were reports of declining freight rates from Gulf ports.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 8.60. Sales none.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Liquidation by the Long Interest Worked at Against the Price.

New Orleans, Feb. 3.—Liquidation of the long interest worked against the price of cotton today. At the lowest the trading months were 13 to 14 points under yesterday's final prices and the close was at a net loss of 8 to 13 points.

The steadiness of the market at the decline was due to the amount of fresh buying orders. This buying was stimulated by the strength of Southern export markets and the continued heavy spot movement. Shipments this week promise to be the largest of any week this season, the total thus far being 343,792 bales.

Exporters said that a further rise in war risk rates had been announced. Bears considered this an unfavorable feature, but shippers did not think it would interfere with the outward movement.

Spot cotton steady, unchanged. Sales on the spot 1,400 bales; to arrive 2,760; cotton futures closing: March 8.24; May 8.52; July 8.71; October 8.89; December 8.13.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

New York, Feb. 3.—Cotton seed oil advanced a couple of points early on short covering, but later was stimulated by the strength of Southern export markets and the continued heavy spot movement. Exporters said that a further rise in war risk rates had been announced. Bears considered this an unfavorable feature, but shippers did not think it would interfere with the outward movement.

Insurance Bill Passed. The House took up the first of the insurance bills introduced by Mr. Seawell, of Lee. It relates to the compensation of agents.

This is the first of the group of bills growing out of the investigation of the legislative committee. Both the author, Mr. Seawell, and the sponsor, Mr. Page, announced willingness to proceed or to defer the bill as the House desired. The debate began. Mr. Page thought the disposition of insurance agents is to be honest, but if there are dishonest ones, the Seawell bill tends to lessen the hazards of such dishonesty.

Mr. Hutchinson, of Mecklenburg, declared that he wished simply to enter "a small protest against the bill because it is not a proper governmental function." He did not think any state has a right to regulate the compensation of employees in such corporations. The Nebraska act had gone beyond any other and a divided court had upheld a law that has not gone so far as this. "I want it understood that my position is somewhat the special pleader's," he said, "my father having written insurance 50 years and I now have two brothers in the business."

Mr. Vann, of Union, wanted to know if the State cannot regulate the rate of interest in banks and other financial institutions. Mr. Hutchinson did not think the question enlightening. "The State cannot regulate the salaries or compensation of bank clerks," he replied. Mr. Page discovered that the agents did not like the bill in question and the companies do; but the agents do like the bill regulating the rates and the companies don't. "I think both ought to pass," Mr. Page said.

Mr. Grier, of Iredell, feared the mathematics of Mr. Page. The Iredell representative did not see how a bill could tend to reduction of rates and claims of compensation. "I fear an agent's trust," Mr. Grier said. "Besides I thought that this insurance investigation was meant to stop the great octopus. I now fear that we are simply engaged in the strangling of little jelly fish."

Mr. Hall, of Iredell, feared that his colleague had eaten a bad breakfast and regretted the mystification of the "senior member." Mr. Hall was glad to vote for the bill. Mr. Page justified his mathematics. He contended that the scale of compensation would make for caution in writing and put the emphasis upon honest agencies. That would eliminate the bad writers. It would reduce the fire waste and reduce automatically the rates. The bill passed second reading.

Mr. Brummitt, of Granville, stepped before the bill to stop on the reading, but Page moved suspension of the rules. The eyes loudly voted the noes, the division not being contended for. The House then adjourned until 10:30 Thursday morning.

THE SENATE PROCEEDINGS. The Senate was convened at 10:30 o'clock by Lieutenant Governor Daughtridge.

New bills were introduced as follows: Weaver—Amend the law as to the salaries of the chief clerk of the State Department of Insurance, and the bookkeeper and the license clerk in the Department of Insurance. These bills are to bring the salaries of these clerks up to the standard of salaries being received by clerks of similar rank in the other departments of State.

Thompson—Appoint a commission to settle the dispute as to the boundary between Onslow and Pender counties.

Cooper—Regulate fishing in New Hanover county.

Harding—Prevent domestic fowls running at large in Pitt county. Miller—Provide for the purchase of Gregory's supplement to the Pell Revisal, for the superior courts of the State.

Johnson, of Hoke—Authorize water-works bonds for Raeford. Ward—Prescribe the details for the popular election of United States Senators by the vote of the people.

Amend the laws as to weights and measures on agricultural products. Amend the law as to liens on colts, calves and pigs.

Long and Short Haul Bills. The Senate at noon took up the consideration of the bills pending for the repeal of the long and short haul clause of the Justice Interstate freight rate act. First, there was declared to be before the Senate for discussion the Ward bill with the amendment by Senator McRae, of Mecklenburg, that would exempt from the clause only those freight rates that apply to freights handled in part by short lines less than 100 miles. Senator McRae stated that the Senate had the right to recede from his position as represented by the pending amendment. He therefore moved to table the amendment. This was carried and then it was stated that the tabling of the amendment also tabled the Ward bill that it was designed to amend.

The president of the Senate then declared that the Page bill, from the House was the next order, this being a duplicate of the Ward bill just tabled with the McRae amendment. Thereupon Senator Hobgood sent forward an amendment for the House bill, the amendment being for the same effect as the McRae amendment.

Senator Hobgood discussed the amendment at length. He declared that the State has at great expense established the scheme of intra-State freight rates prescribed in the Justice act and that to repeal the long and short haul clause completely would destroy the very life of the Justice system of rates. On the other hand, the amendment he proposed would answer every purpose in the relief of the short line and leave the Justice rates as prescribed by the special intra-State freight rate commission in such a strong position as to operate effectively in the saving of many thousands of dollars to the people of the State.

Senator Speight said that he did not want to do anything to injure the railroad and that at the same time he wanted ample justice for the people. Senator Haymore argued for the amendment as giving necessary relief for the short line railroads and restoring whatever of competitive freight conditions was possible.

Senator Ward argued at much length for the passage of the House bill unamended. He did not believe the passage of the bill with the Hobgood amendment would meet the needs at all. And he declared that unless there is relief that is ample for the short lines in the State, there would be an end to the construction of new short lines into those sections of the State where they are so much needed.

Senator Johnson, of Hoke, joined the advocates of the passage of the unamended House bill with a strong speech. At the conclusion of his speech there was an effort to adjourn and leave the bill pending until tomorrow but it failed.

Senator McMichael joined Senator Hobgood in advocating the amendment. He insisted that the passage of the House bill unamended would be an admission that the State was unable to maintain its position declared in the Justice act and to control the railroad business. He insisted that the people do believe that they have the power to control the railroads and the rates and he thought that the Hobgood amendment should be added to the House bill so as to conserve the advantage that has been attained for the people in the control and the reduction of freight rates through the Justice freight rate commission.

On suggestion by Senator Scott that he and others were not in position to vote intelligently on this measure to date, there was a motion to adjourn to 10:30 Thursday. The vote was a tie and thereupon President Daughtridge voted to adjourn and the House bill and the Hobgood amendment went over to Thursday morning, when it will be resumed as unfinished business.

Senate Proceedings of Tuesday. President Daughtridge convened the Senate at 11 o'clock.

There was in again a flood of petitions from many sections of the State urging the enactment of the bills by the State Anti-Saloon League for the prevention of the delivery of liquors for beverage purposes; also petitions as to the legislation asked for by the State Farmers' Union; and that no changes be made in the present laws regulating child labor.

The following new bills were introduced: Harding—Provide for bonds for waterworks by Ayden.

Snow—Appoint justices of the peace for Little River township, Wake county.

Speight Wants to Know. Speight—A Senate resolution calling on the University of North Carolina and other State schools to furnish statistics as to the number of scholarships and other affairs of the institutions. Senator Gilliam insisted that these matters were covered in the recent audit of the State Board of Internal Improvements and would require a lot of useless work. He suggested that Senator Speight inspect the report of the Board of Internal Improvements and then ask for whatever he wants that is not included in that report. To this he withdrew his resolution temporarily.

Senator Speight insisted that there whose parents are not wealthy and he wanted to know what the institutions have done and are doing with their money.

Senator Gilliam said that the North Carolina institutions are operated much more economically than similar institutions in other states.

Senator Speight said that one of the things he wants to know is the per capita cost of students in these institutions. He said he would hold his resolution up for a few days until he could confer with the committee on appropriations.

Passed Final Reading. Bills passed final reading as follows: Allow Weldon to fund her floating debt and amend the charter of Weldon. Regulate the method of building sand-clay roads in Kenansville township, Duplin county.

House bill to divide the state into two judicial circuits. There was lengthy discussion of this bill and it passed in the end by a vote of 34 to 6 and was ordered enrolled for ratification, having previously passed the House.

The advocacy of this bill on the floor of the Senate was under the direction of Senator Gardner, who explained it in detail as a thoroughly constitutional and much desired bill. The bill was introduced by the Superior Court bench, whose work it directly affects. Senator Gardner made a most interesting review of the development of the judicial system of the State and the multiplication of the work and increase of the districts from eight to twenty. He said that Judge Carter, of Asheville, was the only judge on the bench who on the day of the circuit system and preferred to retain the present State-wide rotation that required eight years for a judge to complete the rotation and get back to his home district. He said Judge Lyon lived in the central section of the State and was in the attitude of being indifferent to the fate of the bill. He said that North and South Carolina are the only two states in the whole country that retain this obsolete rotation system.

Senator Gardner said that this rotation of judges can no longer be considered any sort of a notable factor in the matter of bringing about the intermingling of the people and exchange of ideas. He said that the rotation of judges is doing this to a far greater degree. Senator Gardner thought it was unfair to discomfort and inconvenience the judges to such an extent to suit a little purpose. The rotation system would continue, he explained, in the two circuits and there could be shifting of judges at the end of the term of the State through exchanges of courts as at present. The western circuit will have 48 counties and the eastern 52 counties.

Senator Weaver, of Buncombe, made the principal speech against the bill, insisting that it was unconstitutional, being in violation of Article 4 of the constitution. He said that the rotation of judges was in a hopeless minority, but he believed the constitutionality of the bill, insisting that it was unconstitutional, being in violation of Article 4 of the constitution.
